BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel, (Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo; General Manager: Katsushi Nishikawa), was awarded one MICHELIN Key as part of the worldwide unveiling of the MICHELIN Keys in the MICHELIN Guide hotel selection at an awards ceremony held in Paris, France on October 8 2025. This is the second year in a row that BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel, has been bestowed with this honor since the first Keys in Japan were announced last year.

The MICHELIN Key was created to serve as a new benchmark for the world's outstanding hotels in the same manner that the MICHELIN Star does for restaurants. During this, the second year of the MICHELIN Keys, an awards ceremony was held in Paris where the MICHELIN Guide announced its global hotel Key selection in its first-ever global Key reveal, taken from more than 7,000 hotels in nearly 100 countries. Among the recipients, one Key is bestowed on those properties that offer a very special stay, and in 2025 101 hotels in Japan received this honor. ■ Comment from Katsushi Nishikawa, General Manager of BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel

On behalf of everyone at BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel, I would like to express our sincere gratitude for again receiving one MICHELIN Key from the MICHELIN Guide in 2025. It is truly gratifying and humbling to have been bestowed with this honor, which would not have been possible without the patronage of our guests and the efforts of our associates who show the utmost commitment in their day-to-day responsibilities.

As a luxury hotel located in the heart of Tokyo, the mission of BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel, is to offer a sophisticated and elegant stay experience that meets the demands of guests from Japan and abroad. Invigorated by the reception of this award, we will endeavor to further improve the quality of service we provide and present our guests with Japanese “omotenashi,” or hospitality, that they will remember long after their visit has ended as we aim for two MICHELIN Keys from this time on. We humbly request their continued support as we strive to meet their every expectation.

BELLUSTAR TOKYO, which celebrates its second year since it opened in 2023, has increased its presence through the reception of numerous distinguished awards.
