■ A Message from Takeshi Torii, General Manager, BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel

We are sincerely grateful for the prestigious recognition we have received in the hotel, spa, and restaurant categories at the World Luxury Awards 2026. These awards are a testament to the continued support of our guests and the dedication of each of our associates, who work every day to hone their skills and meet our guests' expectations. We extend our heartfelt thanks to them all.

As a luxury hotel offering refined hospitality in the heart of Tokyo, BELLUSTAR TOKYO, A Pan Pacific Hotel is dedicated to providing exceptional stays for guests from Japan and around the world. Encouraged by this recognition, we will continue to pursue ever-higher standards of service and offer hospitality that leaves a lasting impression on our guests.

We will continue to evolve to remain a hotel of choice, and we look forward to your continued patronage and support.

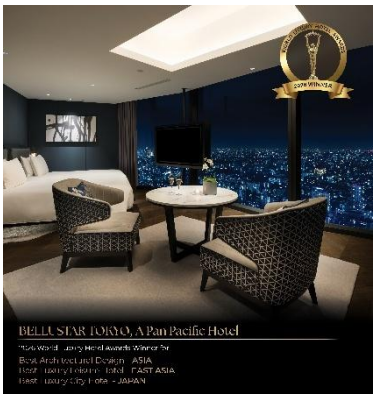

■ About the World Luxury Awards

The World Luxury Awards are prestigious awards recognizing businesses worldwide that offer outstanding service and facilities across four categories: hotels, spas, restaurants, and travel. Established in 2006, the awards recognize the world's leading luxury hotels, with winners selected each year by more than 300,000 hotel guests and industry professionals, including travel agents.

The World Luxury Spa Awards were established in 2010 to recognize excellence in the luxury spa industry. Winners are selected each year based on evaluations by approximately 250,000 travelers worldwide.
